§ 824. Admissibility of statements made during preliminary conference. No statement made during a preliminary conference may be admitted into evidence at a fact-finding hearing under this act or in a criminal court at any time prior to conviction.