§ 113. Management and operation. The joint water works system may be managed and operated by a joint operating agency, by one of the contracting municipalities or by contract with a public authority as the contracting municipalities shall provide. A contract with a public authority shall provide for periodic reports of operations to the participating municipalities.