§ 129-a. Erie county; county hospital superintendent and county hospital board of managers. In the county of Erie, the county executive when authorized by the charter may appoint the county hospital superintendent and the county hospital board of managers for terms as are specified in such charter. Such charter may provide that the powers of such board of managers may be advisory only in which event the powers now granted by statute to such board shall be vested in the superintendent.