§ 209-r. Police protection. Notwithstanding any local or special law or charter provision, a city, town or village shall, irrespective of the boundaries of a privately owned housing development, provide for any streets and pathways open to the public within such development, police protection services of the same character and to the same extent as those provided generally in the community.