§ 696-c. Site preparation. A municipality shall be authorized to undertake site preparation for each eligible area prior to its disposition. Such site preparation may include, but need not be limited to, demolition, site clearance and the curing of problems caused by abnormal site conditions.