§ 99-c. Agreements for joint building inspectors by municipal corporations. It shall be lawful for two or more municipal corporations to engage jointly one building inspector and make an agreement specifying how such inspector shall be paid for his services.