§ 1606. Valuation of shares of subsidiary. In determining the financial condition of a domestic insurance company, all shares of its subsidiaries held pursuant to this article shall be valued in accordance with subsections (c), (f) and (g) of section one thousand four hundred fourteen of this chapter.