§ 1716. Regulations. In addition to the powers expressly given by this article, the superintendent shall have the power to promulgate, from time to time, such regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, as may be appropriate to carry out the provisions of this article and, insofar as applicable to this article, other provisions of this chapter.