§ 2408. Judicial review by intervenor. If the report of the superintendent made pursuant to subsection (c) of section two thousand four hundred five of this article or the order of the superintendent made pursuant to subsection (a) of section two thousand four hundred six of this article does not charge a violation of this article, then any intervenor in the proceedings may, after the service of such report or order upon the intervenor and within the time allowed by law, commence a proceeding for judicial review.
