§ 2609. Discrimination in the issuance of performance or surety bonds. No person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of issuing performance or surety bonds shall refuse to issue such a bond to any person, firm or corporation, solely because of the race, creed, color, sex, national origin, age or marital status of the applicant.