§ 3225. Eligibility for health insurance in cases of exposure to DES. No policy of accident or health insurance, or group or blanket accident or health insurance or renewals thereof shall be denied or cancelled by the insurer, solely because the insured person has been exposed to diethylstilbestrol, commonly referred to as DES.