§ 3409. Distribution of hazardous material report forms. The superintendent shall require every insurance company issuing a policy of fire insurance against a risk located in this state to annually issue to each of its fire insurance policyholders engaged in commerce in this state a suitable supply of forms supplied by the office of fire prevention and control for reporting the presence of hazardous materials as required by section two hundred nine-u of the general municipal law.