§ 4203. Transfer of shares of domestic life insurance company. (a) No shareholder of a domestic life insurance company shall vote his shares until the earlier of (i) ten days after written notice of acquisition thereof has been filed with the superintendent, or (ii) one year after the date of acquisition thereof.

(b) This section shall apply only to shares acquired after such a company has been licensed under this chapter.