§ 4314. Not to affect provisions of workers' compensation law. No provisions of this article or any contract issued by a corporation subject to the provisions of this article shall in any way affect the operation of the workers' compensation law.