§ 5205. Liability of directors and members. (a) No director shall be individually liable for anything done or any liability incurred or assumed by virtue of this article and any such liability shall be collectible only from the corporation.

(b) No member shall be subject to any liability except for unpaid assessments.