§ 6508. Additional powers of superintendent. The superintendent may adopt regulations necessary to carry out this article including restrictions on investments, giving full consideration to the desirability of high liquidity.