§ 6708. Rules and regulations. The superintendent shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the implementation of this article. Such regulation may be necessary in light of the nonprofit property/casualty insurance company being owned by nonprofit organizations that it insures, including the proprietary nature of the information relating to the nonprofit property/casualty insurance company's operations.