§ 7909. Termination of service contract reimbursement insurance policy. An insurer that issues a service contract reimbursement insurance policy shall not terminate the policy except in accordance with section three thousand four hundred twenty-six of this chapter and upon notice to the superintendent. The termination of a service contract reimbursement insurance policy shall not reduce the issuer's responsibility for service contracts issued in this state by providers prior to the date of the termination.