§ 154-a. Regulations. The commissioner shall promulgate such rules and regulations as shall be necessary and proper to effectuate the purposes and provisions of this article, including but not limited to the promulgation of regulations determining the hours and conditions of work necessary to safeguard the health, education, morals and general welfare of child performers.