§ 201-f. Posting regulations on employment of persons previously convicted of one or more crimes. Every employer shall post in his or her establishment, in a place accessible to his or her employees and in a visually conspicuous manner, a copy of article twenty-three-A of the correction law and any regulations promulgated pursuant thereto relating to the licensure and employment of persons previously convicted of one or more criminal offenses.