§ 202-c. Prevention of personal injuries in the use of ski tows, other passenger tramways and downhill ski areas. The commissioner may make rules, consistent with article eighteen of the general obligations law, guarding against personal injuries to employees and the public in the use and operation of ski tows, other passenger tramways and downhill ski areas.