§ 202-d. Coin-operated machines performing a manufacturing process. The commissioner may make such rules governing the construction, maintenance, use, and operation of coin-operated machines which perform any manufacturing process that he or she finds necessary for the protection of the lives, health, and safety of employees and of persons lawfully using such machines. The term "manufacturing" as used in this section shall include the processes described in subdivision nine of section two of this chapter.