§ 262. Fireproof window or fire window. "Fireproof window" or "fire window" means a window with metal frame and sash, or frame and sash covered with metal, and provided with wired glass or of such other materials, construction and operation as the board shall specify in its rules.