§ 292. Drinking water. There shall be provided in every factory at all times for the use of employees a sufficient supply of clean and pure drinking water, and if placed in receptacles the same shall be properly covered and kept clean.