§ 341-a. Unlawfully manufactured apparel. The commissioner shall have the power to affix to any article of apparel or component thereof, in the manufacture or assembly of which any employee was employed in violation of article six or nineteen of this chapter, a tag of no more than six inches in length bearing the words "unlawfully manufactured." Any person other than the commissioner, the commissioner's duly authorized representative or consumer of such article of apparel or component thereof who removes, alters, defaces or otherwise interferes with such a tag shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.
