§ 358. Revocation or suspension of permits and certificates. The commissioner may revoke or suspend the permit of any employer or any homeworker's certificate for a violation by such employer or by any person named in such certificate, of the terms of such permit or certificate, or of any provision of this chapter or of any regulation made by the commissioner, or for non-compliance with an order issued by the commissioner, within the time specified in such order.