§ 392. Exit signs in mercantile establishments or restaurants. An employer having custody and control of a mercantile establishment or restaurant shall be required to post a legible sign marked "EXIT" over doors to be used for egress in the event of a fire emergency.