§ 400. Notice of beginning. Every operator opening a new shaft, incline, tunnel or quarry shall report in writing its location and the name of its owner to the commissioner before the excavation reaches a depth of twenty-five feet.