§ 470. General provision as to construction, equipment and maintenance of places of public assembly. All places of public assembly as hereinbefore defined shall be so constructed, equipped and maintained as to provide reasonable and adequate protection to the lives, health and safety of all persons employed or assembled therein.