§ 572. Notice of liability. Any employer who has become liable for contributions shall notify the commissioner of such fact immediately and shall give information concerning his operations and persons employed by him.