§ 609. Training. Eligible employees may participate, as appropriate, in training to enhance job skills if such program has been approved by the commissioner. Such training may include employer-sponsored training or worker training funded under the Workforce Investment Act of 1998.