§ 693. Enforcement. The commissioner, or his or her duly authorized agent or inspector, is authorized pursuant to section one hundred eighty-nine of the general business law to implement and carry out the requirements of this article.