§ 729. Rules and regulations; extensions of time. 1. The industrial commissioner may, from time to time, promulgate, amend and rescind appropriate rules and regulations designed to carry out the express provisions and purposes of this article.