§ 738. Actions for damages. Any employee or prospective employee damaged as the result of a violation of any of the provisions of this article shall be entitled to file an action for damages in the supreme court of this state.