§ 887. Occupational safety and health inspection account. Notwithstanding any other law, rule or regulation to the contrary, expenditures by the department made pursuant to appropriations from the miscellaneous special revenue fund, occupational safety and health inspection account shall be deemed an assessable expense of the workers' compensation board within the meaning of section one hundred fifty-one of the workers' compensation law.