§ 50.00 Agency prescribing terms, form and contents of obligations. The finance board shall prescribe the terms, form and contents of bonds and notes. However, the finance board may, by resolution, delegate to the chief fiscal officer all or part of such power in relation to every or any type of bond or note, in which event the chief fiscal officer shall exercise such power until the finance board, by resolution, shall elect to reassume the same.