§ 61.05 Advancement of state mental health and developmental disabilities programs through intergovernmental cooperation.

The commissioner may promote state programs or activities in mental health, developmental disabilities, alcoholism, drug addiction, and other areas within the scope of the department's activities and may cooperate with the federal government, local governments, other state governments, other state agencies, and nongovernmental organizations to fulfill the objectives and purposes of this chapter.