§ 75.33 Fees and charges.

The commissioner may by regulation establish and charge to any company such fees and charges for inspection, regulation, supervision, and audit as to the commissioner may appear just and reasonable in order to recover the departmental costs in performing these functions.