§ 19.20 Property acquired from the office. Any person who purchases or otherwise acquires property from the office acquires good title to such property if the office has acquired title in accordance with this article.