§ 29.01 Transfer of powers, functions, duties, employees and property. The powers, functions, duties, employees and property of any trust or commission abolished by this act, of any council or commission continued by this act, unless otherwise provided, or of the office of parks and recreation, are hereby continued in or transferred to the office, as continued by this act.