§ 3.21 Limitation on use of Connetquot river state park water resources. No person shall extract any surface or ground water within the boundaries of the Connetquot river state park, except for public use within the park.