 § 1020-o. Agreement of the state. 1. The state of New York does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any obligations issued under this title and the parties to any contracts with the authority hereunder that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority until such obligations together with the interest thereon are fully met and discharged and/or such contracts are fully performed on the part of the authority, provided that nothing herein contained shall preclude such limitation or alteration if and when adequate provision shall be made by law for the protection of the holders of such obligations of the authority, or those entering into such contracts with the authority. The authority as agent for the state is authorized to include this pledge and agreement by the state in all agreements with the holders of such obligations and in all such contracts.

2. Nothing in this title shall be construed as diminishing or enlarging any valid existing rights under any license heretofore issued pursuant to the provisions of the federal power act.
