It may likewise, with the approval of the board of supervisors, agree upon a basis by which all or any part of its properties, rights and interests in such municipality, including any properties taken or held in the name of the county, may thereafter be acquired by and transferred to such municipality. In any agreement as to rates, the power shall be deemed to be reserved, whether or not expressed, to charge adequate rates to properly operate and maintain any such service and to pay any bonds and other obligations of the authority, including any obligation to the county under this title.
