§ 1858. Assistance by state officers, departments, boards, divisions and commissions. At the request of the authority, engineering and legal services for such authority shall be performed by the department of transportation and the department of law, respectively, and all other state agencies shall upon request by the authority render services within their respective functions.