§ 1878. State coordination, oversight and technology transfer. The New York state energy research and development authority shall exercise oversight over such program; in consultation with Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, coordinate the direction of the program with other research under the auspices of the authority and insure, where appropriate, the expeditious transfer of technology resulting from such program to New York state industries.