§ 1883. State oversight and funding. The New York state energy research and development authority shall exercise oversight over such program and is hereby authorized to disburse funds to the New York State Electric and Gas Corporation to carry out the purpose of this program.