§ 2429-d. Contributions to agency. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law or the provisions of any certificate of incorporation, charter or other articles of organization, all domestic corporations or associations organized for the purpose of carrying on business in this state, and any other persons are hereby authorized to make contributions to the agency.