§ 2617. Moneys of the authority. 1. The moneys of the authority shall be retained by it and deposited in a general account and such other accounts as the authority may deem necessary for the transaction of its business, and shall be paid out on checks signed by the president/chief executive officer of the authority or by such other members or officers as the authority may authorize.

2. The comptroller of the state and his legally authorized representatives are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time to examine the accounts and books of the authority including its receipts, disbursements, contracts, investments and any other matters relating to its financial standing.
