§ 2718. Limitation of liability; indemnification. 1. Neither the members of the authority nor any person acting in its behalf, while acting within the scope of their authority, shall be subject to any personal liability resulting from carrying out any of the powers expressly given in or authorized by this title.

2. The provisions of section eighteen of the public officers law shall apply to members, officers, employees and agents of the authority in connection with any and all claims, demands, suits, actions or proceedings which may be made or brought against any of them arising out of any determinations made or actions taken or omitted to be taken in compliance with any obligations under or pursuant to the terms of this title.
