§ 2890. Funds and accounts of public authorities. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this chapter or any other general, special or local law, every authority or commission hereafter created by this chapter is hereby empowered to establish such funds and accounts as it may deem necessary subject to such agreements as such authority or commission shall conclude with the holders of its bonds or notes.